

Examination Instructions

Before the exam:

- Please do not look at the exam questions before you are instructed to do so.
- Please put your student ID on your desk.
- You will receive 2 copies of the questions: one in the solution booklet and one as a separate booklet.
- Please, when the exam starts, put your student number, name, surname, and signature on the first page of the solution booklet.

During the exam:

- You are not allowed to use any written or electronic aids (such as laptops, calculators, cell phones, etc.).
- The only permitted aid is a two-sided a4 handwritten cheat sheet (or two one-sided a4)
- You are not allowed to communicate with your colleagues. If you do not understand a question please ask an assistant.
- Write your answers directly in the space provided in the official solution booklet. You may use both sides of the paper.
- Do not use any red pen, green pen, or pencil for writing your solutions.
- Do not use correction tape or any other form of corrector. If you need to erase something that you have previously written, do it by crossing it out with your pen.
- Justify your answers. Correct final results will receive full credit only if the way in which the result was reached is documented.
- Do not use your own extra paper. Additional solution sheets will be provided by the assistants if needed.

At the end of the exam:

- Stop writing and remain seated until instructed that you are free to leave.
- The assistants will collect the official solution booklets and any additional sheets.
- Make sure all solution sheets are collected by the assistants.
